Notice: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, U.S. Federal law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person (individuals or businesses) who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account or add any additional service, we will ask you for your name, address, and taxpayer identification number that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see other identifying documents including your driver's license.

Credit Application Information

Our credit application is the main tool we use for quick and accurate assessments of your financial position. A complete application helps our process run smoothly. Please make sure the following items are provided:

- Federal Tax ID: This is required on all applications.
- Vendor Information: We need to know the supplier of the equipment and their contact information so we can verify invoicing information and provide your vendor with the proper information.
- Equipment Information: A complete and accurate breakdown of the equipment along with brand names, years, model numbers and accessories helps us process your request more efficiently.
- Insurance Information: Contact information so we can obtain the proper insurance certificates listing us as loss payee and as an additional insured.
- Type of Lease Desired: Operating lease or finance lease? Term requested? This information helps us provide you a tailored proposal that matches your needs.
- Credit Information: This information helps us obtain the information we need to complete our underwriting of your request. We require guarantees on all closely-held companies.
- Bank References: Business Bank and your loan officer's contact information including account numbers helps us speed up our underwriting process. Many times, we need a written credit release form for the bank to provide us with a reference.
- Signatures and Dates: Our lease application must be signed and dated. We do not pull business or personal credit reports without a signed release or application. Each guarantor needs to sign this application.
